

“Turn a flat or depressed sales organization into profitable growth with Sandler Training”

If you are:

- Unsure if you have the right team in place to ‘deliver effective sales results’
- Tired of monthly sales reports with no new growth
- Disappointed that marketing campaigns do not develop into ‘sales success stories’
- Unhappy that sales people ‘look busy’ doing million dollar proposals, but close very few of them
- Frustrated by inventory that is stockpiling in your warehouse, without customers orders with delivery dates
- Concerned that prospects resist your ‘selling points’
- Being beaten up on ‘price’ by prospects
- Unable to get your prospect to ‘make a decision’
- Anxious that if this continues, bankruptcy may be in the future

These problems can be overcome. Call to inquire if one or more of these issues is going on in your company or one of your clients. Sandler training is the leading provider of sales and management training in the US and internationally. It provides sales and management training programs, with powerful coordination and customization benefits through its extensive franchise network. Entrepreneur Magazine has awarded Sandler its #1 ranking for Training Programs 8 times since 1994, including 2006, 2007, and 2008.
